

To our Liturgical Ministers:

As Christmas approaches, Christmas Day will soon be here, the year's end nears, and a new schedule comes out, I want to thank you on behalf of the parish for your loyalty and hard work in fulfilling your responsibilities as a liturgical minister. Fulfilling your role, you serve the People of God reverently, kindly, and lovingly. Thank you for sharing yourself in your liturgical ministries. I have told you before – I never worry about our liturgical practice here – I know of your love for the holy Mass, your commitment to your ministries, and your care for our holy people. May God grant you a blessed and holy Christmas. May God especially bless all of those who gather in your homes over the holidays. May the coming New Year be filled with God's heavenly blessing and (for our world) blessed peace! You are the Christmas stars of our parish – shine on!

Father Tom Mull
